Bestselling Author Tracie Peterson
Pens Moving Contemporary Novel

Where My Heart Belongs by Tracie Peterson

Minneapolis, MN—Tracie Peterson, whose books regularly appear on bestseller lists, is a favorite author among readers. By blending romance, drama, and adventure, she is able to speak to the hearts of women. Her new contemporary novel is yet another touching story that will resonate with women everywhere.

Amy Halbert left home twelve years earlier, eager to cast aside the hindrances of small-town life. Her sister, Kathy, remained behind, left to witness the ripples of consequences that followed Amy's departure.

When Amy suddenly reappears, her arrival sends Kathy into a maelstrom of emotion. Bitterness and betrayal threaten to consume her as the past is reawakened. But Kathy soon realizes that Amy has had burdens of her own to bear....

Drawn together by their dying father's wishes, these sisters will travel down the difficult road of reconciliation... toward one another, and toward God.

“Tracie Peterson is a courageous author and is to be commended. She has tackled a tough subject in the Christian venue and done so with delicate candor....

This title is highly recommended.”

—Christian Library Journal on What She Left for Me

(Top Pick) “Peterson explores deep pain and points readers to redemption. Flawed, sympathetic characters move through the pages with stark grace that ministers both insight and challenge.”

—Romantic Times
